The 45th Anniversary

It was a day of revelry and laughter, fighting and festivities, and a good time had by all! What a grand event. It was an eventful day to say the least: fighting and A&S competitions were held, merchants set up beautiful and bountiful booths, court was magnificently short and sweet, and the feast was the crowning achievement of the evening!

The fighting tournaments were held early in the day, the winner of both events was Lord Magnus. Archery was held the evening before and the winner was Baron Robin. The A&S tournament was held in the afternoon and the winner was Lady Nara.

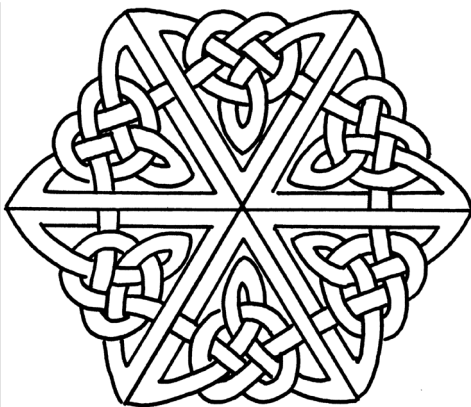

Court was held in the afternoon outside. New fighters and members were honoured, our newest and youngest member, Alexander, was presented at court. One very special and deserved award was presented, the Scroll of Service to Robat Faustus for special service to the Barony.

The day was ended with feasting and stories of Castel Rouge over the last 45 years. The feast was magnificent from the delicious cheese and bread to the sumptuous dessert, the crowning achievement being the roast pig which was enjoyed by everyone who partook. A hearty thank you to everyone who worked so hard to make this event possible, long live the Barony of Castel Rouge!

Let it be known that Robat Faustus, also known as Lucky Bob, has given invaluable service to the Barony by helping wash dishes and clean the kitchen at every event he has attended. His assistance and good cheer are greatly appreciated by all who know of them. Therefore, we present to him the Scroll of Service, done this 30th day of May, A.S. XL at the 45th Anniversary Celebration.
